

Music Day 2025 at NPF Building

The Ministry of Arts and Culture organized Music Day 2025 in collaboration with the Police Pop Band on 20 June 2025 at the Esplanade, Renganaden Seeneevassen Building, Port Louis. It was a vibrant, free, open-air lunch time concert celebrating the universal language of music. For one captivating hour, attendees enjoyed soulful melodies and lively rhythms in the heart of Port Louis. Set against the scenic Esplanade, this event welcomed music lovers of all ages for a delightful mid-day escape filled with live performances.

Open-air concert showcasing the talents of the Police Pop Band

Enthusiastic audience enjoying the open-air concert

Open-air concert experience

A captivating live performance